Frédéric Cazes s'est imposé à Flamanville lors du premier championnat de France du tir de précision au terme de performances de haut niveau.

Les Gersois et les Occitans connaissent Frédéric Cazes pour ses énormes qualités de joueur de boules. Maintenant, la France entière le connaît pour son titre de champion de France dans l'exercice du tir de précision. Frédéric Cazes était déjà le récent champion d'Occitanie, ce qui lui a permis de décrocher son billet pour les championnats de France à Flamanville ce dernier vendredi.

Frédéric était accompagné dans la Manche par un autre Gersois, Bernard Aguer (Urgosse), qui termine 10e. Le championnat de France de tir de précision a vu le jour cette saison en qualité de championnat national. Vingt et un tireurs s'étaient qualifiés dans leurs régions respectives après un lourd écrémage en départements.

Des scores au-delà de 45

Le joueur de Lalanne-Arqué est entré dans ce championnat de plain-pied en prenant d'entrée la 1e place avec un total déjà de haut niveau de 45 points lui ouvrant les portes des quarts de finale. Frédéric Cazes, tel un métronome, se qualifie pour la finale après avoir battu Jean-Noël Lohmann (Grand-Est) 44 à 39 en quart puis Dimitri Heil (Bourgogne-Franche-Comté) en demi-finale (32-18).

Sous les yeux du président gersois Moïse Malonni, Frédéric Cazes est, en finale, face au représentant de la Corse, Jean-Pierre D'Angelo, un habitué des grandes compétitions. Nullement impressionné, le Gersois va prendre la tête dès le premier atelier (12-11). Lors du second atelier, dans lequel une boule est à frapper derrière un but, Frédéric Cazes va marquer son adversaire avec un carreau à 9,50 mètres alors qu'il était à la bataille et sous la pression de D'Angelo qui ne lâchait rien (26-19). Le Corse réduit le score dans le 3e atelier (32-27). Puis, Frédéric, d'un calme olympien, va porter deux coups fatals à D'Angelo avec deux carreaux au 4e et 5e atelier pour s'échapper au score 43-30. Lors du dernier atelier, tirs au but, Frédéric frappe plein bois la cible à 6 mètres et mène alors 48-33. Le Corse est obligé de faire de même pour rester en vie. Le tir de D'Angelo ne fait que lécher le but.

Frédéric Cazes peut lever le poing, il restera à jamais le premier champion de France du tir de précision à pétanque. Sa performance restera de haut niveau avec une régularité des scores au-delà des 45 points. Au pied des tours du château de Flamanville, le nouveau roi du tir au moment de se parer de bleu, blanc, rouge était très ému : « Je ne réalise pas. J'ai lu sur les réseaux sociaux que ce championnat ne sert à rien. Pourtant un maillot de champion de France est un très beau maillot après un très long parcours ». Frédéric venait de placer le Gers au milieu du paysage bouliste national.
